

Cirencester Car Club

Corinium Run

Sunday April 18 APRIL 2010

You are invited to join Cirencester Car Club for the 2010 Corinium Run.

Join in the fun on this efficiency run through the beautiful Cotswolds Countryside, there is no need to be a member of any motor club or to have participated in anything similar before! All you need is a petrol or diesel powered passenger vehicle!

The event will start and finish near Cirencester, Gloucestershire with tea and coffee upon arrival at both the start and finishing points. The run takes in a one hundred mile route that has been specially chosen to show the beauty of the Cotswolds Hills, byways and picturesque Villages.

At the start you will be given instructions for a full and easy route to follow, all illustrated in an easy to follow diagrammatical road book. To add to the fun of the event you guess your vehicles expected Miles per Gallon and using the Cirencester Efficiency Index you will be told the actual efficiency of your vehicle based on the amount of fuel used and the weight of your vehicle. This is all calculated under the supervision of MSA scrutineers and presented to you in the forms of miles per gallon and pence per mile.

Put this date on your calendar.
